

Dear Candidate,

The Session of First Presbyterian Church of Georgetown, CO is seeking to fill a part-time role of transitional leadership. The individual will have the function of coordination and leading worship services and other church activities, in addition to providing pastoral care and a pastoral presence in the community.

Georgetown First Presbyterian Church (1869) is a true community church deriving most of the attendees from the local mountain communities (full and part-time residents), and visitors to Clear Creek County. Our congregation particularly enjoys expanding its knowledge or understanding beyond the usual. They like to learn the how, where, when of our religious basis and what is happening around the world in conjunction with Christians not necessarily the answer to social issues but rather a biblical thought process on how to reach an answer.

Since the town's beginning as a mining camp in 1859, Georgetown has attracted those who have sought something very special. First it was the magic of gold and silver ore, now it's the beauty and ambiance of this picturesque town surrounded by the Rocky Mountains. Georgetown is conveniently located at Exit 228 from I-70, just 45 minutes from Denver.

The job description is attached.

Since this is a temporary transitional contracted position, the person who fills it will follow Presbytery's parameters regarding eligibility for consideration for the installed past position at the church. The transitional contract will be terminated when the new pastor is installed, or at such time as agreed to by the Session and candidate.

You may submit your resume electronically to Clerk FPC Georgetown <presbyterian251@gmail.com>. Or a hard copy to First Presbyterian Church of Georgetown, PO Box 912, Georgetown, CO 80444. Questions can be directed to: Pam McCoy, 303-995-9751.
