Pastoral Care Team

The Presbytery of Denver

YOU ARE SPECIAL PEOPLE

Pastors, commissioned lay pastors, educators, and candidates under-care of our presbytery are special people!

You extend loving care for and nurture others. You may find a time that you are in need of someone to provide pastoral support for you. A resource the Presbytery offers, for you, is through the Pastoral Care Team (PCT).

The PCT, through the Committee on Ministry, and in partnership with the Presbytery Pastor, consists of experienced pastors volunteering their time to be prepared for your care with confidential assistance.

We encourage you, as our Presbytery's Spiritual Leaders, to ask for help when you need it and contact any one of the team members to seek a listening ear. The team will respond to any pastoral concerns and referrals.

The Pastoral Care Team will...

◊ Maintain Confidentiality

◊ Be a listening ear for you

◊ Help you to connect with colleagues if you desire a support group or someone with expertise in a specific area of ministry

◊ Encourage your self-care in the areas of your professional, spiritual, physical, financial and family life

◊ Help you to find counselors, mentors, coaches, financial planners, spiritual directors as desired

◊ Provide knowledge of the resources in the Presbytery and through the Board of Pensions

◊ Be available to you and respond to your needs to the best of our ability

◊ Avoid situations and areas of ministry in the Presbytery that would put us in a conflict of interest in relationship to you

◊ Provide references for you, only if you request it of us and we have discussed the scope and details of the reference together
